Summer: heaven for your soul, hell for your face. Or so is the view of the beauty industry, which uses fall to drop products that reset and restore after summer months spent in the sun, wind, water—or just away from your routine. Time to undo damage, retool your skin-care regimen and re-up your vitamins. Scroll to see the most eye-catching new beauty and wellness releases for the fall:

The New Cult Fragrance

LilaNur Parfums Davana Cèdre, $275 for 100 ml

The most noteworthy perfume by fragrance-world executive Paul Austin and Anita Lal, founder of Indian home emporium Good Earth, is this herbaceous woody creation dreamed up for them by Honorine Blanc.
